JUNE HYMN: 696 – O God, My Faithful God

Hymn: 730

CATECHISM:

What is the Fifth Petition?

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

What does this mean?

We pray in this petition that our Father in heaven would not look at our sins, or deny our prayer because of them. We are neither worthy of the things for which we pray, nor have we deserved them, but we ask that He would give them all to us by grace, for we daily sin much and surely deserve nothing but punishment. So we too will sincerely forgive and gladly do good to those who sin against us.

GOSPEL READING: Luke 6:36-42 ESV

³⁶ Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. ³⁷ “Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; ³⁸ give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you.” ³⁹ He also told them a parable: “Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰ A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. ⁴¹ Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? ⁴² How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.

RESPONSE: O Lord, have mercy upon us.

Thanks be to God.

CATECHESIS:

The Father is merciful and shows His mercy in giving you what you do not deserve. In His rich mercy, He provides His only begotten Son in death and there Jesus was offered up for the sins of the world. Jesus was nailed to all of the specks and logs of the world and there He was crucified for all of your sins. Jesus is the one who will come to judge the living and the dead. But He does not come to judge and condemn you, instead He forgives you because of the shedding of His precious Blood on your behalf. Though you are blind because of your sin, you are not lead by a blind man, you are lead by the voice of your Good Shepherd Jesus Christ. You hear His Voice as He speaks to you in His Word. And He gives to you grain in good measure, pressed down and shaken together into bread become His Body and He gives you a cup that is running over with His Blood, mercy and forgiveness. This is the mercy of God, Father, Son and Spirit, that He forgives your sins and claims you as His own because of the death of Jesus Christ on the cross for the forgiveness of your sins.

APOSTLES' CREED:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

KYRIE: Lord, have mercy;

Christ, have mercy;

Lord, have mercy.

LORD'S PRAYER:

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name,

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us ✠ from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever.

Amen.

COLLECT OF THE WEEK:

Grant, O Lord, we beseech Thee : that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Thy governance, that Thy Church may joyfully serve Thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost : ever one God, world without end. Amen
